Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of insurance with Us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires You to provide Us with the information We need to enable Us to decide whether and on what terms Your proposal for insurance is acceptable and to calculate how much premium is required for Your insurance. You will be asked various questions when You apply for this policy. When You answer these questions, You must:

1. give Us honest and complete answers,
2. tell Us everything You know, and
3. tell Us everything that a reasonable person in the circumstances would be expected to tell Us.

What You do not need to tell Us

You do not need to tell Us about any matter:

1. that diminishes Our risk,
2. that is of common knowledge,
3. that We know or should know as an insurer, or
4. that We tell You We do not need to know.

Who does the duty apply to?

Everyone who is insured under this policy must comply with the duty.

What happens if You or they do not comply with the duty?

If You or they do not comply with this duty, We may cancel the policy or reduce the amount We pay if You make a claim. If fraud is involved, We may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

Privacy

We and Great Lakes Australia are bound by the requirements of the Privacy Act 1988, which sets out standards on the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information.

We collect personal information from You for the purpose of providing You with insurance products and services and for processing and assessing claims.

Personal information is treated with care. We will not release Your personal information to anyone else other than Great Lakes Australia, its related entities, Your insurance intermediary or as permitted or required by law.

If You make a claim under this insurance, We may disclose information to (and/or collect additional information about You from) claims investigators, claims managers, assessors and lawyers.

You have the right to seek access to Your personal information and to correct it at any time.

If You require further information or would like a copy of Our Privacy Policy please contact Our Privacy Officer on (02) 9496 9300 or write to Us at the address given further below. A copy of Our Privacy Policy can also be obtained from Our website.

Details on Great Lakes Australia's Privacy Policy can be found at www.gla.com.au or by contacting them:

Dispute resolution

We view seriously any complaint made about Our products or services and will deal with it promptly and fairly.

If You have a complaint please first try to resolve it by speaking to the relevant member of Our staff.

If the matter is still not resolved, please then contact Our Internal Disputes Resolution Officer by writing to Us at the address given above. We will acknowledge receipt of Your complaint within 3 working days.

If the complaint relates to the insurance cover We will work with Great Lakes Australia to resolve the complaint. We will, provided We have sufficient information, complete the review within 15 working days. Where We are unable to do so, We will agree a new timeframe for responding to You. In any case, We will provide You with an update every 10 working days.

If You are a natural person or a small business, and You are not satisfied with the final decision, You may wish to contact the Financial Ombudsman Service ("FOS"). The FOS is a free independent external disputes resolution service provided to customers to review and resolve complaints where We have been unable to satisfy Your concerns.
