➤ General information

Our agreement

When You purchase insurance, You enter into a legal contract in which You commit to meet certain obligations and conditions. We use the information You give Us to decide whether to offer insurance and the premium and terms that may apply.

When You have paid (or agreed to pay) the premium to Us, We will give You the cover described in this PDS (where selected and shown on Your Schedule). Our contract (“policy”) consists of:

- this PDS You are reading now; and
- Your Schedule.

Your duty of disclosure

This policy is subject to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Act). Under that Act You have a Duty of Disclosure.

Before You take out insurance with Us, You have a duty to tell Us everything that You know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may affect Our decision to insure You and on what terms. If You are not sure whether something is relevant You should inform Us anyway.

You have the same duty to inform Us of those matters before You renew, extend, vary, or reinstate Your contract of insurance. The duty applies until the policy is entered into, or where relevant, renewed, extended, varied or reinstated. You need to tell Us immediately of any new information or changes to the answers that have been provided to Us and/or the disclosures You have made to Us throughout the Period of Cover.

What You do not need to tell Us

You do not need to tell Us about any matter:

1. that diminishes Our risk;
2. that is of common knowledge;
3. that We know or should know as an insurer; or
4. that We tell You We do not need to know.

Who does the duty apply to?

Everyone who is insured under this policy must comply with the duty.

What happens if You or they do not comply with the duty?

If You or they do not comply with this duty, We may cancel the policy or reduce the amount We pay if You make a claim. If the non-disclosure is fraudulent, We may treat the policy as if it never existed and pay nothing.

Words with special meanings

In this PDS and Your Schedule there are words which have special meanings. These words appear with a capital first letter. The meaning of these words is shown in the definitions section on page 7.

Key factors influencing the cost of this insurance

The cost of this policy, including Government levies and charges (GST, stamp duty and the fire service levy), will be shown on Your Schedule.

The key factors that influence the premium calculations for the various coverage sections are reflected in the questions asked, and information sought, at the time of Your enquiry or application for this insurance.

For General Property covers, these factors include the Sum Insured, the type of Insured Property, location and the Excess selected.

For Motor cover, these factors include the make, model and age of the Vehicle being insured as well as its intended use and most common storage location.

For all covers We will also take into account Your previous insurance and claims history.
